4. Inspection

A) The Agency and its representatives shall be authorized, in the performance of their duties, to conduct inspections, or premises, or parts of premises, at such times and in such manner as the Agency may find convenient or necessary, with the consent of the person in possession or occupancy.

B) If admission is refused or cannot be obtained from the person in possession or occupancy, the Agency or its representatives shall be authorized to obtain a warrant to make an inspection, provide reasonable or probable cause is shown.

C) In case of an emergency, the Agency or its representatives may, without a warrant, enter any premises, or parts of premises, to inspect the same, at any time, without the permission of the person in possession or occupancy.

5. Violations

A) Whenever the Agency finds that there has been a violation of the Property Maintenance Standards, the Agency shall issue a violation order to the person or persons responsible. The violation order shall:

- i) be in writing;
- ii) identify the premises;
- iii) specify the violation and remedial action to be taken;
- iv) provide a reasonable time limit for compliance which shall be seven (7) days, unless otherwise extended by the Agency.
- v) state the time within which an appeal may be taken which shall be fifteen (15) days; and
- vi) if the violation constitutes a public nuisance or renders the premises dangerous or unsafe, include, in the order, a statement that if the violation is not remedied within the time limit specified on the order, the Agency may remedy the violation.

B) A violation order may be served as follows:

- i) by personal in hand service, or
- ii) by mailing, by registered or certified mail, to the Property Owner, in accordance with this Local Law, or
- iii) if no owner, or other party upon who an order may be served can be located, then by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place on the premises and by mailing another copy thereof to the premises, on the same day as posted, enclosed in a postpaid wrapper addressed to the last known owner.

C) In case the owner, occupant, or the agent of any of them, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to remedied, eliminate, or abate the violation within the time specified, the Agency shall request the chief legal officer of the municipality to take appropriate legal action; and same shall be punished. The Village Justice Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the complaint and render judgment thereon.

D) If the violation constitutes a public nuisance or renders the premises dangerous or unsafe, and the violation order has been served, but the violation has not been remedied within the time limit specified in such violation order, the Agency may remedy the violation, after obtaining a court order, without being required to give notice of the application for such order, authorizing the Agency to enter the premises and remedy such violation, after the expiration of three days from the date of service of the court order. Unless the court otherwise directs in such order, it shall be served in the same manner as provided, in paragraph "B" of this section, for the service of a violation order.

6. Recovery of Costs

Costs incurred by the Agency in eliminating or removing violations of the Property Maintenance Standards, nuisances and dangerous or unsafe conditions shall be paid for by the municipal fiscal officer out of the municipal treasury upon certification of the Agency. Such costs shall be charged against the premises, and shall constitute a lien thereon in favor of the municipality, and the amount of such costs may be assessed against the property owner and if not paid to the Village Clerk within thirty (30) days, may be entered on the tax rolls as being due and payable. Interest, at the rate of 12 percent per annum, shall be payable thereon and shall accrue from the date of the payment thereof by the municipality. Such costs may also be recovered in any other lawful manner.

7. Records

The Agency shall keep official records, but not limited to:

Registrations and reports filed, certificates issued, complaints received, inspections made, violations found, order issued, and actions taken. Such records shall be public records, open to inspection during business hours. Copies or transcripts of such records shall be furnished upon written application and payment of any and all lawful fees.

8. Penalties

A) Failure to comply with a violation order, within the time limit stated therein, shall constitute an offense. A person convicted of an offense shall be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) or by imprisonment for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) days, or both. Each and every week and such continued failure to comply with a violation order, after such time limit, may constitute a separate offense for which the aforesaid penalties may be cumulatively imposed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, punishment by imprisonment under this paragraph shall not exceed one (1) year regardless of the number of offenses.

B) the penalties heretofore prescribed shall not be imposed upon a person who by operation of law acquires premises containing violations for which a violation order has been issued, for a period of one month after the date of such acquisition of the premise. Nevertheless, the penalties provided shall attach and apply, either upon the expiration date of such one month period, or upon transfer of title to the premises before the expiration of such period, whichever first occurs.
